ONE BUNDRED AND FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOL-LARS IN BONDS AND INTEREST PAID OUT BY THE TREASURER-PXPORTS OF MANUEAC-TY LAST MONTH-LARGE SUM OF MONEY STOLEN-PRINCE GEORGE CONSERVATIVES LICS, &C.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch,] AUGUST 2, 1880.

The treasurer to-day paid out over $100, 600 in redeeming the bends of the city which matured on the 1st of August, and between $15,000 and $20,000 in interest which fell due on the same day. The total amount of these bonds was $160,500, of which some $20,000 had been paid before maturity. Most of these bonds were held by parties outside of the city, and were collected through the banks and attorneys. Tals is probably the largest amount ever paid out of our treasury in one day. The money to meet them on maturity, as the readers of the Dispatch have heretofore hour. been informed, was raised by the sale of the city's preferred stock in the Petersburg railroad several months ago.

The exports of manufactured tobacco amounted to 401,985 pounds-an increase as compared with the exports of several months past. It is stated that though a large quantity of tobacco, both manufac-tured and leaf, is shipped from this port for what is justly due our city. In the olden

Mr. Thomas C. Eiliott, of this city, has a cane in his possession which was cut by his father 111 years ago on the site of the present water-works. It has a notch upon it which marks the limb on which at the same time was found a mocking-bird's next, the young in which were captured and eaged. Mr. Elliott has also a frame containing the portrait of his grandfather which is 140 years old. Its size is 18 by 24 inches, and in the lifetime of his grandparent it was regarded with great curiosity and wonderment by the people on account of its large size and the great glass it held. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] AUGUST 2, 1880. Saturday evening as the superintendent was walking around and overlooking the which was laid the corner-stone of the building some weeks since by Bishop Keane. Upon examination he found the brick-work had been cut and a hole eighteen or twenty inches in circumference made in the abutment, and the corner-stone raised, and the casket, &c., removed. The matter was kept quiet for a time for some clue to the perpetrators. Thus far no trace has been found. Yesterday our sergeant received a letter from Independent-Detective Knox, of your city, asking the arrest of George Brown (colored), a bricklayer from your city, for felony; which was promptly executed, and L. Hobson's two thoroughbred riding-negs, George lodged in Jail. George Brown was and Colonel J. L. Carrington's four horses one of the hands employed on the church building named above.

Fatal Collision.

HOW AN EXCURSION TRAIN AND A LOCAL TRAIN CAME TO CRASH INTO EACH OTHER ON THE LONG ISLAND RAILROAD.

[New York World, yesterday.] One life was lost by Saturday night's col-lision on the Southern railroad of Long Island near Morris Greve, but that no more lives were lost is almost a miracle. Although the other train was nine minutes behind time the Long Beach train started with almost a certainty of meeting the local train when both were under full beadway. The danger of collision was further increased by the nature of the road, which is marked in this part by frequent sharp curves. On one of these curves, about two bundred yards from Morris Grove and about two miles from Jamaica, the two trains came together. The Long Beach train consisted of four close cars, with some three hundred passengers aboard, and was going twenty miles an
